Integrated Health Care Services
Integrated Health Care Services Guse and Developmental Disabilities Director Doyle met to discuss the current developmental disabilities contract noting there has been a decline in recent years of clients being served in Adams County. A draft interlocal agreement between Adams County and Grant County was presented for the provision of disability services to Adams County clients. Grant County also works with Compass Solutions. The clients would remain with Compass Solutions for services with Grant County providing oversight.

Guse does not feel it is feasible for the county to hire a Developmental Disabilities director, even at half time, as there are not adequate funds in the program.

The Board provided consensus authorization to move forward in the process of requesting Grant County provide Developmental Disabilities services to Adams County clients through an interlocal agreement between the two counties.

Civil Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Barden and Emergency Management Director Weise were present telephonically.

Public Health
Integrated Health Care Services Director Guse provided Adams County statistics on COVID-19 and provided a review of how her department responds to confirmed cases of the virus.
