Board of Health Update
Dr. Brzezny, Adams County Health Officer, provided the following updates:

- Covid – Delta dominance and infectiousness, combined with low virus mitigation and a lower vaccination rate, is resulting in more cases.
- The Delta strain of the virus is present in Adams County.
- Incidence rate in Adams County – one in four tests are positive.
- Hospitalizations are rising in Washington state.
- Recent Covid-19 vaccination mandates by Governor Inslee.

Additionally, Dr. Brzezny is recommending mitigation measures such as indoor masking and regulations on outdoor entertainment and/or large events.

Public Health
Dr. Brzezny reported difficulty in filling the position vacated by Karen Potts, R.N. Structural needs of the Health Department were reviewed.

Environmental Health
Environmental Health Director Timm Taff provided updates on departmental activities involving reporting; vaccination clinics; food establishment inspections; on-site septic inspections, solid waste complaints; and employee training. Taff noted he is currently assessing files and updating public health and emergency preparedness response documents, including a continuity of operations plan.

Mental Health
Amanda Zepeda reviewed individual programs within the mental health department as well as the volume of people served in each program.
