CITY OF SNOQUALMIE, WASHINGTON
RECISSION OF EMERGENCY PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, on January 31, 2020, the Secretary of the United States Department of Public Health and Human Services, Alex Azar, declared a public emergency effective January 27, 2020 for the novel coronavirus known as COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, on February 29, 2020, Governor Jay Inslee signed a Proclamation declaring that a State of Emergency exists in all counties in the State of Washington due to the number of confirmed cases of COVID-19 in the State, and directed that the plans and procedures of the Washington State Comprehensive Emergency Management Plan be implemented; and

WHEREAS, on March 1, 2020, King County Executive Dow Constantine signed a Proclamation of Emergency due the number of confirmed cases of COVID-19 in King County, thereby enabling the government of King County to take extraordinary measures in response to the presence of COVID-19 in King County; and

WHEREAS, on March 6, 2020, Snoqualmie Mayor Matthew R. Larson issued a Proclamation of Emergency, proclaiming that: (a) the documented presence and impact of the virus within King County and its potential to spread rapidly in the region if steps were not taken to contain or slow the spread constituted an "emergency" as defined by the Snoqualmie Emergency Services and Management Plan, that warranted the invocation and potential utilization of emergency powers granted pursuant to Snoqualmie Municipal Code Chapter 2.48, RCW 35.33.081 and RCW 38.52.070; (b) a COVID-19 emergency existed in Snoqualmie; and (c) authorizing the Mayor, City Administrator and each City of Snoqualmie department or office to exercise the powers vested under the Proclamation in the light of the evolving exigencies of the COVID-19 situation, without regard to time consuming procedure and the formalities prescribed by law (excepting mandatory constitutional requirements); and

WHEREAS, on March 9, 2020, the Snoqualmie City Council adopted Resolution No. 1535, ratifying the March 6, 2020 COVID-19 Emergency Proclamation; and

WHEREAS, on August 19, 2021, Mayor Larson issued the Mandatory COVID-19 Masking and Vaccination Directive ("Vaccination Directive"), which instituted requirements for mask-wearing and receipt of COVID-19 vaccines by City employees; and

WHEREAS, on June 14, 2022, the Snoqualmie City Council adopted Resolution No. 1619, adopting amended Personnel Policies including Policy 2.33, which formally incorporated the COVID-19 vaccination requirement for City employees from the Vaccination Directive as part of the City's Personnel Policies; and

WHEREAS, on September 8, 2022, Washington State Governor Jay Inslee announced the recission of COVID-19 state of emergency and all then-remaining emergency proclamations, effective October 31, 2022; and

WHEREAS, on October 11, 2022, City of Seattle Mayor Bruce Harrell Mayor Bruce Harrell announced that the City of Seattle would officially end its COVID-19 Civil Emergency Proclamation after October 31, 2022; and

WHEREAS, at the October 24, 2022 regular Snoqualmie City Council meeting, I announced the recission of the March 6, 2020 COVID-19 Emergency Proclamation, effective October 31, 2022; and

WHEREAS, the March 6, 2020 Proclamation of Emergency stated that the emergency declared therein shall be in place immediately and remain in place until terminated, extended or amended by further Proclamation of the Mayor and/or action of the City Council;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it hereby confirmed and proclaimed by the Mayor of the City of Snoqualmie that, effective October 31, 2022, the emergency declared by Matthew R. Larson on March 6, 2020 is terminated and the March 6, 2020 Emergency Proclamation is rescinded and of no further force or effect.

A copy of this declaration, the extent practicable, shall be posted at the City's regular locations for official notices and shall be made available to members of the local news media and the general public and appropriate federal, state, regional and local agencies.

Dated this 6th day of December, 2022

Katherine Ross

Mayor Katherine Ross

Attest:

Deana Dean

Deana Dean, CMC / CPRO, City Clerk

Approved as to Form:

Bob C. Sterbank

Bob C. Sterbank, City Attorney