Eligibility Criteria
As a supervisor, your responses will help identify considerations in determining whether a position and an employee are eligible for mobile work.

- Determine position eligibility on current duties—not the job title, appointment, schedule or employee.
- Determine employee eligibility on ability to work independently, remain focused, and maintain or exceed performance—regardless of circumstance.

Once you complete this assessment, review and discuss the results with your employee and Division Director as part of our mobile work application process. You may also consult with Human Resources.

DEFINITIONS:
Standard Hybrid Mobile Work (1-2 days) or the 3+ Day Mobile Work – An arrangement in which some duties may be performed at an alternate and approved worksite, on a regular and recurring basis.

Situational Mobile Work – An arrangement in which duties may be performed at an alternative (approved) worksite on a pre-approved, case-by-case basis (e.g., Continuity of Operations Plan (COOP), urgent IT matter, other special project). In this arrangement, the hours worked are not part of a previously approved, ongoing and regular mobile-work schedule.

Position Eligibility Questions – Supervisor Assessment	Yes	No
1. Does the position require the employee to report daily (i.e., every day) to the traditional worksite?	☐	☐
2. Does the position require continuous on-the-job training or close supervision?	☐	☐
3. Does the position require daily use of special facilities or equipment that either the office cannot provide to the employee or it is unavailable at the alternative worksite?	☐	☐
4. Does the position involve tasks that require daily face-to-face contact that cannot be achieved through alternate communication tools (e.g., email, phone, online meetings, electronic file transfer) with supervisors/ managers, co-workers/team members, customers (internal and external)?	☐	☐
5. Does the position involve tasks that require daily access to materials or equipment that cannot be moved from the traditional worksite or accessed outside of the traditional worksite, such as unique reference materials or special tools?	☐	☐
6. Does the position involve tasks that require daily access to systems, networks, and applications that cannot be accessed at the alternative worksite?	☐	☐
7. Would the performance of the position duties at an alternative worksite result in a measurable decrease in the level of service provided to customers? (e.g., negative impact to call response time, delays in processing work, inhibiting customer access to the employee).	☐	☐
8. Does the position produce measureable work as defined by OSOS policy?	☐	☐
9. Does the position have customers (internal or external) that need to interact face-to-face with the employee on an unscheduled (drop-in) basis? (If the answer is sometimes, mark "NO".)	☐	☐

If the answer is YES to any of the above questions (except #8), the position is not eligible for mobile work.

If the answer is NO to all of the above questions (#1-9), the position may be eligible for standard hybrid or situational mobile work, once employee eligibility is determined. Continue with Questions #10-17.

Employee Eligibility Questions – Supervisor Assessment	Yes	No
10. Is it accurate to say that, by allowing mobile working for this employee, the workload of other employees will not increase?	☐	☐
11. Does the individual possess the necessary knowledge, skills, abilities, and behaviors to work autonomously without onsite supervision? (Consider past performance and any current corrective action.)	☐	☐
12. Will you be able to accurately assess performance during the mobile work period? (Some jobs may require observation in order to assess the employee's performance (e.g. – probation, trial service or in-training appointments.)	☐	☐
13. Does the employee have effective and positive working relationships with you and with co-workers? (Mobile working can cause additional strain to poor working relationships.)	☐	☐
14. Does the employee have the ability to use required computer systems independently and solve basic problems to occur?	☐	☐
15. If mobile working results in the employee making more or different decisions independently, does the employee have the ability and willingness to do so?	☐	☐
16. Can attendance at regular meetings be arranged so the mobile worker remains an integral part of the team?	☐	☐
17. Does the employee have the ability and motivation to understand and follow all requirements of OSOS Mobile Work Policy? (Consider past compliance with office policies.)	☐	☐

If the answer to all of the above questions (#10-17) is YES, the employee is ELIGIBLE to mobile work.

The supervisor may recommend approval for a specific request for the following:

a. Standard Hybrid Mobile Work or the 3+ Day Mobile Work.
(If the position includes recurring tasks and/or tasks that may be scheduled in advance and performed for at least a full day at an alternative worksite, the position is suitable for recurring mobile work on a limited basis.)

b. Situational Mobile Work, as outlined above.
(If the position does not include recurring tasks and/or tasks that may be scheduled in advance, the position is only eligible for situational mobile work.)

Supervisor Determination If the position is eligible for mobile work, please answer the following questions.	Yes	No
Is the position eligible for regular/ recurring mobile work on a set schedule?	☐	☐
Is the position eligible for situational mobile work?	☐	☐
